

Satisfaction for the Global Environment

Via resource recycling initiatives that use limited resources and energy without wasting them, we will take on climate change and other challenges confronting a sustainable society, and strive to create a resilient society that preserves the beautiful global environment.

Materiality

Engaging with climate change issues via corporate activities

Developing goods, services and mechanisms to encourage the recycling of resources

Investigating and reducing hazardous chemical substances

■ The PLUS Group Environmental Philosophy and Policy
<https://www.plus.co.jp/en/sustainability/environment/>

Close-up ➤ Biodiversity Conservation

Related SDGs

“Highlights in 2024”

Primary topics

Percentage of environmentally-friendly products in catalog

78%*

We have actively worked on developing environmentally-friendly furniture products, stationery products, and meeting tools in “PLUS Catalog 2024.”

* SKU calculation

Material Reverse System
More than

99% recycled

We have achieved a recycling rate of over 99% using “MRS,” a total recycling system for used office furniture.

Managing

17.5_{ha} of green space in order to conserve biodiversity

PLUSLAND is an industrial complex that maintains an appropriate balance in symbiosis between nature and humans, and has created a rich natural environment.